

Contact: Todd Camp
Marketing Communications
(817) 863-4020
todd.camp@aacreditunion.org

FOR RELEASE: Jan. 5, 2024

AMERICAN AIRLINES FEDERAL CREDIT UNION MAKES $60,000 DONATION TO CHILDREN'S MIRACLE NETWORK

FORT WORTH, Texas – American Airlines Federal Credit Union proudly presented Children's Miracle Network Hospitals with a $60,000 donation as a result of its 27th Annual Credit Union Golf Tournament – which took place on Sept. 22, 2023, at Cowboys Golf Club in Grapevine, Texas. The total donation will be split between Cook Children's Health Foundation and Children's Medical Center Foundation.

The check was presented this month at the American Airlines Credit Union headquarters building in Fort Worth. Karol Johnson, Cook Children's Medical Center in Fort Worth was in attendance to accept the donation from Credit Union President & CEO Gail Enda and tournament coordinator Tish Pruitt.

The tournament's presenting sponsors were Jack Henry and PSCU, with many other businesses participating at various sponsorship levels.

"It was another beautiful day for our annual tournament with plenty of sunshine to brighten everyone's spirits as we played for a good cause," said Tish Pruitt, Golf Tournament Director at American Airlines Credit Union. "It's a great way to come together, have some fun, and show our support by raising much-needed funds for our children's hospitals."

"This annual fund-raiser is one of the highlights of my year especially considering what a wonderful cause it benefits," said Gail Enda, Credit Union President & CEO. "It's always inspiring to see the generosity of our community as they come together to support the area's best pediatric healthcare providers."

Credit unions hold fast to their motto of "People Helping People" and this philosophy blossoms with the industry's support of Children's Miracle Network Hospitals.

Credit unions fund-raising under the Credit Unions for Kids brand have partnered with Children's Miracle Network Hospitals since 1996, generating more than $100 million in contributions.

"Children's Health is so grateful to American Airlines Credit Union for their long-standing dedication and support to our mission to make life better for children," said Paulette Mulry, vice president of development, Children's Medical Center Foundation. "Their continued commitment to providing mission-critical funding helps us deliver the best care possible to every child we serve."

"Cook Children's is incredibly grateful for our long-standing partnership with American Airlines Credit Union," said Grant Harris, SVP, Chief Development Officer, Cook Children's Health Foundation. "Thanks to you and your generous support of our Sit...Stay...PLAY facility dog program, our patients receive a unique form of healing through their interactions with our six therapy dogs. On behalf of our staff, patients, and families, I would like to extend our sincerest gratitude for all that you do."

For any additional information regarding the American Airlines Credit Union annual golf tournament, please contact Tish Pruitt at Tish.Pruitt@AACreditUnion.org.

About American Airlines Federal Credit Union

Founded in 1936, American Airlines Credit Union now serves the present and retired employees of American Airlines, their family members and people who work in the air transportation industry. In its 88th year, the Credit Union has more than 354,000 members nationwide and assets in excess of $8.6 billion. As a not-for-profit financial cooperative, American Airlines Credit Union is committed first and foremost to enriching its member-owners' financial well-being through their participation in the products and services of the Credit Union. For more information, please visit AACreditUnion.org.

From left, Karol Johnson, Children's Miracle Network Hospitals Manager; Gail Enda, President & CEO, American Airlines Federal Credit Union; Tish Pruitt, Community Relations American Airlines Credit Union; and Nick Coleman, Director of Strategic Partnerships, Children's Miracle Network Hospitals.

###